The Embassy of the United States of America Thanks Saudi Arabia for Assistance and Support in the Wake of Hurricane Katrina

The Embassy of the United States of America in Riyadh expresses its profound gratitude to the people and government of the Kingdom of Saudi Arabia for the many expressions of sympathy and concern and for the generous pledges of assistance in support of the relief and recovery effort in the wake of Hurricane Katrina. The American people take heart from the fact that so many of our friends around the world are responding to this human tragedy. In more than sixty years of friendship, Saudi Arabia and the United States have stood together through many difficult times. We are grateful that once again our friends in Saudi Arabia are standing with us in the face of adversity.
